

WVDA Black Fly Spray Announcement

The West Virginia Department of Agriculture will be conducting aerial treatments for biological suppression of black flies on the New, Bluestone, and Greenbrier Rivers on Thursday, July 1, 2021, weather and water levels permitting. Potentially, the treatments may continue into Friday, July 2, 2021.