

Black Fly Spray Day Announcement

The West Virginia Department of Agriculture will be conducting aerial treatments for biological suppression of black flies on the New, Bluestone, and Greenbrier Rivers on Tuesday, August 31, 2021, weather and water levels permitting. Potentially, the treatments may continue into Wednesday, September 1, 2021.